TUESDAY EVEN'G., OCTOBER 20.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK .-- In the Congressional campaign of this year, so far as it has progressed, the tide of battle has run against the Republican party with steady force. Nine States have elected their Representatives in the Forty Fourth Congress, and the following comparative table shows the political changes in these States. The result is significant:

Rep. Dem. Rep. Dem. Dem. Maine. Vermont, West Virginia, 1 North Caroline, 3 13 Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Nebraska, Oregon,

Here is a loss of thirteen members in these States to the Republicans, and if New York and Pennsylvania do not check the current of adverse results, there will, in all probability, be a Democratic majority in the next House. Fifty-two gains to the Democracy are necessary to accomplish this, and of this total the Democrats claim they will gain twenty members in the Southern States. With the gains already made this will make a total of thirty-three, leaving nineteen to be gathered from the other States. The next election to be held for Congressmen will be in South Carolina on Wednesday. On November 2d and 3d the great mass of the new members will be chosen, twenty-three States holding elections on these days, so that the political complexion of the new Congress can then be accurately ascertained, as members will afterwards remain to be chosen in but four small States-New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut and Califorpia-which have, in the aggregate, thirteen members. The whole House consists of two hundred and ninety-two, and the present Republican majority is one hundred and four. - Baltimore American (Rep.)

A Card. The determination of my friends yesterday evening that my name ought not to be presented to the convention then in session, after the extraordinary action of that body in excluding the five regularly elected delegates from the Scott townshsp, in Fauquier county, imposes upon me a duty which I must perform. I announce myself a candidate to represent this District in the next Congress of the United States.

If the Republican party presents a candidate, will submit to the arbitrament of any Conservative convention that may be elected in accordance with the established plan of organization.
